Brethren,

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize our senior members in the lodge and all those who have passed on, whom through their faithful service has made it possible for us and future members to enjoy the rights and privileges of the greatest and most honorable society in the world.

On this note of service, let us keep in mind and heart our veterans, those who have fallen and those who still fight today for the noble and glorious cause of freedom, liberty and justice not only for us but for the people of Iraq.

Let us not forget that over 200 years ago this country too had a lot of help in our struggle for independence. God be with you, our leaders and our troops.

Garth McCrary,
Worshipful Master
