

Columbia Lodge #31 of Free and Accepted Masons

May 2007 Newsletter

It's not the critic who counts, not the one who points out how the strong man stumbles, or how the doer of deeds might have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, who's face is marred with sweat, dust and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy cause and who if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat
